

BECOME AN MGA ASSOCIATE MEMBER and RECEIVE MUCH MORE THAN A HANDICAP

The MGA Associate Program is up and running at Wells Golf Club. You have the option to become an annual member of the MGA through your course. The MGA Associate Membership is often thought of as a golfer's "GHIN handicap fee"; but in truth, it's much more than a handicap.

The 2021 fee to join is $25.00.

Name: _____

GHIN #: _____ - _____
(if known)

Address: _____
(Mandatory)

City State Zip _____

Email: _____
(Mandatory)

DOB (mandatory for juniors 18 and under): _____

BENEFITS FOR GOLFERS:

- Subscription to the Minnesota Golfer magazine
- USGA Handicap Index through the GHIN service
- Free GHIN Mobile Score Posting App
- Handicap and post scores online
- Handicap revision updates emailed straight to the player!
- Up-to-date course rating information in national database ensures handicap accuracy!
- Eligibility to play in MGA tournaments and championships!

HOW THE MGA SERVES GOLFERS AND CLUBS IN MINNESOTA:

- Provides the GHIN Handicap service and educational seminars
- Conducts 17 state level championships (in addition to 7 USGA qualifiers)
- Provides course rating and measuring services
- Teaches, interprets the Rules of Golf
- Serves more than 400 golf clubs and 66,000 associate members
- Provides clearinghouse and resource for golf information
- Acts as USGA liaison organization
- Publishes the Minnesota Golfer magazine
- Lobbies on behalf of the golf industry
- Preserves golf's history and traditions and ensures the game's future
- Supports college scholarships through the Evans Scholars Program
- Supports turfgrass research, allied golf associations, golf tourism efforts, and charitable efforts
- Provides volunteer opportunities
- Runs junior and senior golf programs
- Leads regional volunteer network
- And enlists a passionate and committed staff working for the good of the game.

The MGA provides so much more than a handicap. The MGA delivers programs and services that contribute immensely to the good of the game in Minnesota. Members are actively supporting the USGA, MGA and the game of golf in Minnesota!